

First meeting of the Expert Panel

© Published: Thursday, 06 November 2014 16:42

The expert panel of the Preparatory Committee met for the first time in London on the 26 September. Discussions were held and advice was provided on topics covering training of candidate judges, draft rules on legal aid and how the entering into operation of the court should be organised.